SupplyPro Introduces SupplyPod --
Point-of-Use Management in a Small Size, at a Smart Price, and with Big Control

SupplyPod Harnesses SmartDrawer Technology in a Compact Footprint to be Used Virtually Anywhere

SAN DIEGO – Sept. 15, 2011 – SupplyPro, the premier provider of Point-of-Use (POU) inventory management solutions, today announced the introduction of its latest development innovation – the SupplyPod. The SupplyPod provides all the control, reporting and order management of SupplyPro's larger Point-of-Use solutions in a compact footprint that can be placed virtually anywhere – on a desktop, cabinet, tool chest, workbench or wall mounted.

"Our development team keeps setting the standard for innovation in Point-of-Use technology," says David J. Simbari, President and CEO of SupplyPro, Inc. "Revolutionary in design and execution, the SupplyPod is developed for inserts and small commodities where absolute control is essential. We've had extraordinary feedback from all of the sectors where we've previewed this low-cost device and fully expect it to be a game changer in the way that people interact with Point-of-Use devices in both traditional MRO, Safety and tooling environments and new markets that have already shown interest in the functionality."

The SupplyPod uses the robust control and functionality of SupplyPro's SmartDrawer technology in less space. Key features include:

- Ideal for Smaller Parts
 - Standard configurations are designed for smaller parts such as drill bits, inserts, taps, small tooling, fuses, switches, keys and much, much more!
- Supports All Standard Features from Our Full Line of Point-of-Use Devices including:
 - Take/return, check-in/check-out and serialization
 - Industrial design and durability
 - Automated orders and reporting
 - Custom allocation code tracking and dispense limits
 - Full access to information via SupplyPort and integration with ERP systems
- Choose from two standard configurations
 - Controls 96 or 80 unique part numbers per SupplyPod
- No Repackaging Needed
- Simple Pick to Light Design for Ease of Use
- Simple, Fast Restocking & Administration with SupplyPro's Exclusive Rapid Refill
- Optional Dividers to Separate Parts in a Single Compartment

- Eliminate potential tool damage using dividers within a compartment and expand capacity to up to 228 compartments in a single SupplyPod

- No Drop Zone – The Safest Dispensing
 - No more worrying about expensive tooling dropping in a vending unit.
 - The SupplyPod's compartments are specially designed for easy take and return of the most delicate tooling and instruments
